INDIANA INFANT TODDLER INSTITUTE

OCTOBER 6 & 7, 2014

SHERATON HOTEL
KEYSTONE AT THE CROSSING
INDIANAPOLIS, IN

Welcome to the Indiana Infant-Toddler Institute!

Indiana's Infant Toddler Institute is a 2-day leadership conference designed to meet the professional development needs of those working in infant-toddler care and education, including child care (center-based, ministry and family homes), early head start, and early intervention. The Institute is supported by the Office of Early Childhood and Out of School Learning, with sponsorship from the Indiana Head Start Collaboration Office. Approval for 1.2 CEUs (12 hours) has been requested. The institute is an approved First Steps Core Training (FSCT).

Keynote Speakers

From All to Each and Every: Using Your Leadership to Support Each Young Child

Camille Catlett is a Scientist at the University of North Carolina's Frank Porter Graham Child Development Institute. Her recent research efforts have focused on developing, implementing, and evaluating models for preparing personnel to work with young children who are culturally, linguistically, and ability diverse and models for collaborative, cross-sector professional development.

Quality in Group Settings for Infants and Toddlers: It's Meaning, Measurement, and Enactment

Diane Horm is the George Kaiser Family Foundation Endowed Chair of Early Childhood Education and Founding Director of the Early Childhood Education Institute (ECEI) at the University of Oklahoma at Tulsa.
